Basic Principles

The Nara Women's Higher Normal School was established in 1908. 1949 saw the promulgation of the National School Establishment Law and the school was accordingly re-established as Nara Women's University, with Nara Women's Higher Normal School as its predecessor. The purpose of the institution and its academic research activities is as follows: "The University exists to provide female students with the highest learning environment. This, together with our efforts to spread knowledge and awareness, shall ensure that we will be a center of scholastic culture and research and our development will deepen our scholastic scope in professional and research terms. We will also contribute to cultural development as a whole" (from the University's academic statutes).

The intellectual independence of the woman in society is linked to the development of her intellectual abilities, and in this regard Nara Women's University is responding to the current needs of society and the changing nature of the times we live in. In 2000 four fundamental principles were put in place:

第4期中期目標 (令和4年4月1日～令和10年3月31日)

Fourth Medium-term Goals

奈良教育大学と奈良女子大学は令和4年4月1日に法人統合を行い、「国立大学法人奈良国立大学機構」を発足させた。本機構の基本的な目標は、次のとおりである。

- 1 既存の「教員と組織」による制約を超え、学修者の主体的な学びと学びの幅の拡大を実現するため、本法人を核に、奈良に立地する国立の高等教育・研究諸機関や、隣接する関西文化学術研究都市にある民間研究諸機関等との連携「奈良カレッジズ」を構築する。それにより高等教育の新たな総合化を目指す。
- 2 アクティブ・ラーニングやPBL(課題解決型学習)をさらに推進し、他者とともに学ぶ力、自ら感じたことを論理的に人に伝える力、「地球規模で考え、あしもとから行動する」力(think globally act locally)を身に付け、行動の変容につながる学びを実現させる。そのため、両大学の教養科目の共通化や、地域の人々や多分野における研究者等と自由に交流・研究する「異能交流ラボ」を設置する。
- 3 学部教育はそれぞれの専門を学ぶために必要な資質・能力と、幅の広い教養を身に付けさせることにより重きを置き、大学院教育は主体的な専門選択を前提に徹底した専門家養成を行うLate specializationを推進する。とりわけ奈良女子大学工学部においてはその先駆けとしてそれを推進する。また、人生の様々な局面でうまれる専門学修への志向を取り込むべく、リカレント教育を充実させ大学における多様化を促進する。
- 4 附属学校園を含む両大学が連携して「奈良国立大学機構 連携教育開発センター」を設立し、両学の教養教育、教員養成、情報教育、さらには附属学校園をフィールドとする教員研修や教育研究開発に取り組み、高等教育の改革のみならず教育全体の改革に貢献する。
